

my_name

my_profile["Name"]
Primrose

Functions used in accessing values from a dictionary key() - Allow to access all key name

Value() - Allow to access all the values in dictionary

Items() - put your key: value pairs in a list get() - Extract a value by specifying the key

my_profile["name"]
Primrose

my_profile.get("name")
Primrose

How to remove values from a dictionary pop() => my_profile.pop("name") popitem()

del

pop() -> It will delete the name from the dictionary

popitem() -> deletes the last key: value pair in the dictionary

.clear() - empties the dictionary

List

- is an array used to store multiple values in a single variable.

- my_cars = ["BMW", "Polo", "Suzuki"]

- Square brackets

- Indexed